AMERICAN INTERESTS IN THE GEM OF THE ANTILLES.

Intriguing for the Sale of Cuba to Uncle
Sam—Confederated American Estates and Minister Foster's Treaty.
Other Capital Gossip.

WASHINGTON, May 11.—There is a great deal of talk in Washington about Cuba.
There is a combination of speculators here
seeking to sell Cuba to this government.
The price they ask is one hundred and fifty millions. They expect to force this upon the attention of Congress next winter.
They have been told that there would be plenty of money to divide among the friends of the enterprise. Cuba has yielded no revenue to Spain for a long time. She has been, on the contrary, a drain upon the Spanish treasury. Spain is now trying to dispose of the island. If her treaties had been ratified last winter she would not have been in the market.

Cuba is one of the richest spots upon the face of the earth. It is a country which would be easily governed if she should receive
from this province an enormous revenue.

Soon after the insurrection of 1868 Spain made a bold move to put an end to all future negotiations upon the island. That was the moment during which the proceedings were instituted in Talbot county, Md., and the case has been conducted very quietly, Meiere not making any defense. It is supposed that the Spanish consul was urged by the Japanese consul to do this.

The Japanese consul would not have been in
the market.

Cuba is one of the richest spots upon the face of the earth. It is a country which would be easily governed if she should receive
from this province an enormous revenue.

Washington, May 11.—Dr. Ernest

Meiere will go to Nagasaki, Japan, as consul of the United States. His commission was signed and ready for delivery, but it will be withheld. Secretary Seward left to this district of administration. Dr. Meiere was arrested for attacking Commodore

Truxon and pulling that officer's beard in the Ebbitt house.

The explanation was made that he was intoxicated, and that his part in the result was due to his foolishness.

THE EVENING BULLETIN

BOSHER & McCARTHY,
Publishers and Proprietors,
To Whom Address ALL COMMUNICATIONS

MONDAY, MAY 11, 1885.

In the spring the deer's fancy,
Lightly turns to thoughts of frost,
And he raves about the bunch beans
And tomatoes that are lost.

THE COURT OF CLAIMS is in session today.

MISSOURI wheat stands at 57 per cent. of an average crop.

MURKIN, W. W. BALDWIN & SONS sold last week a fine gelding to Mr. Clinton, of Philadelphia, for $850.

BROUNING with to-day the evening train from Mayville will leave at one o'clock p.m., standard time, instead of 1:15, as heretofore.

MR. GEORGE W. SMITH, practical plumber and gas fitter, has an advertisement in another column. He will attend promptly and satisfactorily to all work entrusted to him. Give him a call.

A LARGE crayon portrait of the late John A. Brockway, of Brown County, O., furnished by Moses Leyland & Walsh of this city, is as good a piece of work of the kind as we have seen in a long time.

MR. CLARENCE STATION has bought the Brooksville Democrat and assumed editorial control. He is a son of Mr. James W. Station, one of the first citizens of the county, and has in him the make-up of a successful editor.

MR. JOHN L. PARKER, a prominent and useful citizen of Lewis County, died on Friday night, the 8th instant, at his home on Cabin Creek, of heart disease, in the sixtieth year of his age. The remains were interred in the cemetery at Mt. Olivet Church, on Sunday. A large concourse of sorrowing friends were present.

THE Washington Post says: The appointments which Mr. Cleveland has thus far made from the Southern States are not of a character to suggest any distinctive Southern policy on the part of the administration. They are rather the indication of a patriotic desire to honor the country at large than of any mere party purpose to satisfy particular localities.

JOHN GREEN, colored, who has been working at Parker & Hopper's livery stable for some time, was arrested and lodged in the station house Saturday night by Deputy Marshal James Heflin, on the charge of grand larceny preferred by Major Chenoweth & Co.'s drug store that evening and the evidence so far points almost conclusively to Green as the culprit.

A COLORED reader has asked the BULLETIN to print the following:

Mrs. Rachel Ann Johnson was married May 10, 1885, to Mr. John W. All the white the finest colored lady that lives in Owingsville. She is nice and neat about her work and she is a good wife. She does not like to work, but she doesn't like her because she is too toney for me. She is a young woman with a very rich white complexion. She has a daughter, a fine young lady. The gentleman she married is a good man. He is a carpenter and is looking for a nice house and lot. The reason they didn't put their marriage in the paper because they did not know it till Friday.

THE Mayville Knights have engaged the Mayville band to accompany them to Frankfort, to attend the Masonic meeting, on the 20th, 21st and 22d inst. They have written to Mr. George Tudor, Jr., who is now at New York under musical instruction, engaging him to go with the band on this occasion. Mr. Tudor is considered one of the finest snare drummers in the West.

An Alleged Bigamist and Barn Burner.

Mr. W. J. Wykoff, of Rome, O., brother of General A. T. Wykoff, U. S. Pension Agent at Columbus, Ohio, made affidavit Saturday before Magistrate M. F. Marsh and had a warrant issued for Richard McManis, charging him with being a fugitive from justice. On the 2nd day of April last Wykoff, who is a farmer living near Rome, had a tobacco barn containing about five thousand pounds of tobacco and several head of live stock destroyed by fire. The property was insured for but a small amount and the loss was a very heavy one to Wykoff. At the time of the fire McManis was living in the neighborhood, but afterwards came to this place. Here he was arrested last Friday on the charge of bigamy. His examining trial on this charge came up at 3 o'clock Saturday before Magistrates Grant and Marsh. On motion of the Commonwealth's attorney, the warrant for bigamy was dismissed on account of the absence of the prosecuting witness. McManis was immediately taken into custody on the charge of being a fugitive from justice. He was taken before Judge W. P. Coons, where he consented to be taken to Rome for trial without awaiting a requisition from the Governor of Ohio. He will be taken to that place to-day by Deputy Marshal Heflin.

The Revival Meetings.

It has been a long time since there was much interest manifested in religious meetings as there is in the meetings now in progress in this city. Rev. George C. Needham, the Irish evangelist, began his meetings by a sermon in the Baptist Church, which was listened to with deep attention by a packed house. At 2 p.m. a prayer meeting was held in the basement of the M. E. Church, South, which was largely attended. At 3 o'clock almost every chair in the opera house was filled, besides a choir of fifty or sixty voices on the stage. Professor Aviss sang some beautiful soloes and led the choir in several grand old hymns. Mr. Needham then announced as his subject, "Deliverance from Sin, the Mission of Jesus." For an hour the preacher held his audience in deep attention. He then invited all who felt an interest in this meeting to repair to the lecture room of the Methodist Church, South, which was soon filled. After a tender talk by the evangelist and prayers by several, eight or nine came forward and professed faith in Christ.

At 7:30 this evening the Presbyterian Church was packed to its utmost capacity, even the standing room being all occupied. When no more could enter the ushers were compelled to close the door and a great many people were turned away. Mr. Needham announced as his text Luke 15: 12, "He that Receiveth Many Sins and Easeth With Them." Some of his illustrations were very striking, especially the illustration of the restored lunatic. After the sermon an inquiry was held in the lecture room and several professed faith in Christ. Owing to the great crowd it has been decided to hold the night meetings at the opera house hereafter. Morning prayer meeting will be held at the M. E. Church, South, even day from 9 to 10. Bible readings at the Presbyterian Church from 3 to 4 and preaching at the opera house at 7:30 p.m. This evening from 7 to 7:30 Mr. Needham will hold a children's meeting in the M. E. Church, South. Let everybody attend these meetings, it will do you good.

Threw Himself Out of a Window.

A merchant, overcome by nervous prostration, recently became so wild and delirious that he jumped from a third story window of his house and was fatally injured on the pavement. Had this unfortunate gentleman taken Brown's Iron Bitters in time, his life might have been preserved. This potent tonic enriches the blood, tones the nerves, and imparts energy to failing constitutions. Mrs. Phoebe A. White, Alaska, Mich., says, "Brown's Iron Bitters cured me of dyspepsia, poor appetite, and nervous prostration."

THE Cincinnati and South Eastern Railroad Company filed its application this morning in the Court of Claims to submit to the voters of Minerva, Fern Leaf, Murphyville and Mayfield precincts, the proposition to subscribe stock in said road. In the four precincts $75,000 will be asked for. The matter will be considered by the court this afternoon.

PERSONALS.

Mrs. T. Y. Nesbitt is considered to be little better to-day.

Mr. J. W. Parish and family, of West Va., are visiting Mr. A. B. Greenwood.

Miss Amanda Wall, of Flemingsburg, is visiting Mrs. George T. Wood, of Pearl Hill.

Miss Julia Wood, who has been visiting friends at Augusta, has returned home.

The Ripley Budget says, Mr. James H. Sallee, one of Mayville's rising lawyers, has received his sancutum Friday with his presence. He is a candidate for Commonwealth's Attorney, 14th Kentucky District. He is a descendant of one of Brown County's prominent and honored families.

BLACKBURN, Not Appointed Collector.

[See also DAILY BULLETIN.]

FRANKFORT, KY., May 11, 1885.—Sunday's Courier-Journal says that Captain Blackburn will not be appointed Collector of the Seventh District as the Cabinet opposed him unanimously, and in consequence the President refused to make the appointment.

To Capt. Blackburn was on account of a letter written by him to his wife while he was in the South in 1861.

THE law is, a most jealous mistress, and no man can be great in the legal profession and devote half his time or even less, to politics, says the Philadelphian Times.

Kentucky has usually been classed as a Southern State, but now figures in the geographies as an Eastern Central State, [Chicago Tribune.]

TRAPPED BY CHILDREN.

EIGHT TAWNY SONS OF ITALY ARRESTED IN CHICAGO.

Charged With Murdering a Fellow Countryman for Gold—Unraveling the Pittsburgh Trunk Mystery—One Man Positively Identified.

CHICAGO, May 11.—Five Sicilians have been arrested here for complicity in the murder of Caruso, whose corpse was sent to Pittsburgh in April. These can be identified as members of the lower class. They were arrested on evidence furnished by a little girl who saw Caruso enter the house occupied by them, and about an hour afterward saw a man enter the same house. The description of this man leaves little doubt that it is the one in which the body of Caruso was shipped to Pittsburgh. The man Gilardo, arrested in New York a day or two ago, and who followed the fugitives and his passenger to Pittsburgh, thence continuing his trip east, is regarded by the police here as, beyond a doubt, one of the men present at the murder of Caruso if not the instigator of the crime.

The police now believe they have arrested all the persons who were concerned in the affair. The two Italians, Antonio Mercuro and Bovoconti Savadore, now under arrest, were residents of the house where the murder was committed, having come to the trunk to be repaired, their intent being to return against him. Detective Bonfield expects to arrive from New York with Augustine Jurado and Victoria Ceannirito, the woman who left him with her for New York, who will identify the men.

Dr. B. F. Broughton, a representative of the American Press was again positive that he identified Mercuro as one of the men who bought the trunk. Dr. Broughton's office is on the corner of Madison and Market Streets. He said he had seen the two Italians, one carrying a trunk on his shoulder, on the street near Semple's trunk store at 10 o'clock on the morning Caruso, the murdered man, disappeared. "I had to stop the walk, then I saw the two girls, the most recent pass, and thought it strange to see anybody carrying such a burden on his shoulders when there were numerous express wagons in the vicinity." Dr. Broughton came to the scene of the crime, where the eight prisoners were, and immediately identified the man as he was seen.

Augustino Girado, who has been identified as the man who checked the trunk containing the body, arrived in Pittsburgh in charge of Detective Bonfield, who was sent here through an interpreter, and denied that he was angry at Caruso because he refused him a loan of money. He said he did not know Caruso was dead until he was arrested in New York as an accomplice in his murder. The prison is stoutly built, with low, receding forehead and bushy face.

NEARING THE END.

The Last Sad Scenes in the Libby Sensation and Tragedy.

CHICAGO, May 11.—The Pinkertons claim that they have recovered the wife of Charles A. Libby, the missing New York and Chicago shirt manufacturer. They believe him to be alive, but the developments are such that they refuse to divulge them. The friends and relatives of Libby at Libbyland, where she was married seven years ago, have all been notified by telegraph, but it is not thought that they will have time to reach here before the burial, as the services cannot be delayed. Libby will be buried in Greenwood, where Mr. and Mrs. Libby have one child laid at rest. Two beautiful little daughters, scarcely old enough to realize their terrible misfortune, have been removed from the scenes of the tragedy, and will be given a quiet life after their burial. Their uncle, Mr. James L. Libby, will then take them with him to his home in New York.

They Fear the Irish Not the Strelak.

NEW YORK, May 11.—Her majesty's shipping Committee, who are in command of the West India squadron, came up past quarantine and anchored in the upper bay. A long beam was run out from the bow, from the end of which hung a colossal net which is used as a torpedo catcher. "This torpedo net is the best, if not the best," said a lieutenant. "We are going to keep the boat and its crew floating around every night and the launch will be ready at any moment. We are not afraid of anybody trying to come alongside but we're afraid of some of those Irishmen trying to float torpedoes against us with the ebb tide that are the Strelak. We could do up the Strelak in a few minutes."

Ohio Gold Mine.

NEW LEXAON, O., May 11.—A large amount of gold was taken from the farms in this vicinity, on the Eaton Pike, eleven miles west of Dayton, over the alleged discovery of a gold mine. Wm. Shock and a gang of workmen left here Saturday morning. Shock was said to contain the gold, on a farm near here. They commenced digging and kept it up all night, but had not struck the gold yet. They assert, however, that the gold is there, and they were continuing their operations until late Monday afternoon. About six months ago another gang started to dig for gold on the same farm, but were driven off.

Fugitive Murderer Caught.

AKRON, O., May 11.—George S. Barber, arrested at Bellevue, O., for killing Michael McElroy in Akron, March 27, 1872, was brought here. Barber and McGarry had been over here for a week, and McGarry, with two brothers, was advertising on Barker when he shot, killing Michael. On the preliminary hearing, thirteen years ago, Barber was cleared, but the grand jury indicted him for the second度. He did not appear immediately on the first trial, and for several years was not heard of. At the time of Barber's discharge a number of Irishmen here were organizing to lynch him. Barber married recently and has a wife and child.

Miss Wandeveenter's Little Fortune.

CHICAGO, May 11.—The jury in the case of Miss Elizabeth Wandeveenter, against the Chicago city railway company, brought in a verdict awarding her $6,500 damages for injuries received while attempting to get on a cable car last January.
